II. PARENTING TIME/VISITATION SCHEDULES

The best visitation plan is one the parties have agreed to, rather than one imposed by the court. However, the Court will only enforce the strict terms of this Parenting Plan in the event of any future disagreements concerning visitation.

This parenting schedule begins on:

() date of this plan OR () _____
(date and time)

A. Parenting Time/Visitation-General

This visitation schedule is broken up into several different sections or types of visitation. Regardless of the age of the child(ren) whose custody is being addressed herein, this visitation schedule is organized to include visitation during the school year, during holidays from school and during summer. For all purposes herein, the following terms shall be applicable:

- 1) Visitation during school year: If the child(ren) are not enrolled in school, the published schedule of the local public school where the primary custodian resides shall be utilized. If the child(ren) are enrolled in school, the schedule of the school system in which the child(ren) is/are actually enrolled shall be utilized. In the event there is more than one child and the children are enrolled in schools which observe different schedules, the parties shall utilize a hybrid schedule that reflects the holidays which are common to all applicable school systems (the applicable schedule shall be referred to as the "School Year"). This schedule may also be referred to as the "Regular Schedule" or "Day-To-Day Schedule" herein.
- 2) Visitation during Thanksgiving Break: This period of visitation includes the dates that the applicable school system recesses for at least two consecutive school days in November of every year ("Thanksgiving Break"). This schedule begins to be applicable at 6:00 p.m. on the date that the Thanksgiving Break begins and ends at 6:00 p.m. on the Sunday after Thanksgiving.
- 3) Visitation during Winter Break: This period of visitation includes the dates that the applicable school system recesses for winter break and which includes December 25 of every year ("Winter Break"). This schedule begins to be applicable at 6:00 p.m. on the date that the Winter Break begins and ends at 6:00 p.m. on the day before school resumes.
- 4) Visitation during Spring Break: This period of visitation includes the dates that the applicable school system recesses for a full week in the month of March or April of every year ("Spring Break"). This schedule begins to be applicable at 6:00 p.m. on the day that school recesses for Spring Break and ends at 6:00 p.m. two days before school resumes.
- 5) Visitation during Summer: This period of visitation includes the dates that the applicable school system recesses for at least one full month in the summer and is the period between academic years ("Summer Break"). The Summer Break begins to be applicable on the day that school recesses for Summer Break and ends at 6:00 p.m. on the day before Summer Break ends.
- 6) Weekend: For purposes of this parenting plan, a weekend begins at 6:00 p.m. on Friday and ends at 6:00 p.m. on Sunday.
- 7) Weekday visitation: Due to the distance between the residence of the parties, no weekday visitation is awarded during the School Year.

B. Visitation during school year:

During the School Year, the Non-Custodial Parent shall have at a minimum the following rights of parenting time/visitation (choose an item):

- () None;
- () One weekend of each month. If the parties cannot agree, the weekend visitation shall begin on the first Friday of each month provided that weekend is not included within another period of visitation during the Winter Break, the Summer Break or Spring Break. The other parent will have the child(ren) for the second period of Winter Break, beginning at 10:00 a.m. on December 26th until 6:00 p.m. on the evening before Winter Break ends. Unless otherwise indicated, the parties shall alternate the first and second periods of Winter Break each year.

E. Visitation during Summer: (Choose one of the following)

- () Applicable () Not applicable, the Day-to-Day schedule applies () See Paragraph XI below

The Non-Custodial Parent shall have visitation with the child(ren) during the Summer Break as follows:

The child(ren) shall be with Mother on every Mother's Day from 6:00 pm on the Saturday which precedes Mother's Day until 6:00 pm of Mother's Day. The child(ren) shall be with Father on every Father's Day from 6:00 pm on the Saturday which precedes Father's Day until 6:00 pm on Father's Day. This schedule will be maintained, regardless of which parent the children would have been with on that particular weekend under the Regular Schedule of visitation or under the schedule of visitation applicable to Summer Break.

H. School holidays that precede or follow weekend visitation during the school year

For the purposes of this parenting plan, if the Non-Custodial Parent exercises visitation during the School Year on a weekend in which there is a Friday and/or Monday school holiday which immediately precedes and/or follows his weekend visitation, the Non-Custodial Parent's visitation shall include that Friday and/or Monday school holiday ("Holiday Extension"). For the purposes of this paragraph, a "school holiday" includes a teacher work day or other day in which students are not required to attend school and which is announced by the applicable school system before the end of the Non-Custodial Parent's normal weekend visitation. However, this Holiday Extension is only applicable to the schedule of visitation for the School Year and only applies to Friday and/or Monday. Therefore, the Holiday Extension does not include any additional school holidays which are not a Friday immediately preceding the regular weekend visitation during the School Year or a Monday that immediately follows a regular weekend visitation during the School Year.

III. COORDINATION OF PARENTING SCHEDULES

The parenting time/visitation awarded herein that is not included within the School Year takes priority over the schedule of visitation during the School Year. Therefore, unless specifically noted otherwise herein, there is no weekend or weekday visitation during Mother's/Father's Day, the Thanksgiving Break, the Winter Break, the Summer Break or the Spring Break.

IV. TRANSPORTATION ARRANGEMENTS

A. Meeting location for exchange of children: For all periods of visitation, the place of meeting for the exchange of the child(ren) shall be halfway between the home of the Custodial Parent and the Non-Custodial Parent, unless the alternate provision below is marked and a different meeting place/plan is indicated.

_____ Alternate meeting place/plan: _____

B. Transportation costs: Unless otherwise ordered or agreed, all travel expenses of the child(ren), including air travel expenses, shall be shared between the parties in the percentages set forth below. If travel is by air, non-stop travel between the departure city and the arrival city must be utilized, if reasonably available. Air travel shall be purchased at the lowest available fare for a reasonable itinerary. Both parties are expected to travel to a commercial airport that is located within 200 miles of the residence of that parent that will facilitate non-stop air travel to a commercial airport that is located within 200 miles of the residence of the other parent. If air travel is utilized for transportation of the child(ren) for visitation, the parties must confer as to the flight reservations and neither parent may make flight reservations until the other party is consulted. If the parties cannot agree on the flight reservations, after due consultation with one another, the Custodial Parent shall be entitled to make flight reservations in even-numbered years and the Non-Custodial Parent shall be entitled to make flight reservations in odd-numbered years.

C. Division of transportation costs: The parties shall divide the costs of transportation for the travel of the child(ren) as follows:

1) in accordance with the percentages set forth on Line 3 of the Child Support Worksheet.

OR

2) the Custodial Parent shall pay _____% and the Non-Custodial Parent shall pay _____% of all travel expenses of the child(ren).

_____ [mark if applicable] The Court is not ordering the parties to utilize unaccompanied air travel for the child(ren) in this case. The decision as to whether the child(ren) will travel by air and whether the child will be accompanied is a decision that must be made by the parents. If the child travels while accompanied by an adult, the cost of the air fare for the adult accompanying the child shall also be included in the transportation costs shared by the parties as set forth above.

V. CONTACTING THE CHILD

When the child(ren) is/are in the physical custody of one parent, the other parent will have the right to contact the child(ren) as follows:

A. Contact via telecommunications: The parent without the child(ren) may call the child(ren) AT ANY TIME THAT IS REASONABLE. The party without the child(ren) may not call more than one time per day except in emergency or exceptional circumstances. If the child(ren) is not available to talk on the telephone at the time of the call, the party without the child(ren) may leave a mature voice message or mature text message, requesting that the child(ren) return the call. If a mature message is left, the party with the child(ren) shall ensure that the phone call is returned on the same day that the message was left. The party without the child(ren) shall be reasonable in the time of the call, the frequency of the call and the duration of the call.

B. Recording not allowed: Neither party is allowed to record or monitor the communications between the other party and the child(ren) which occurs by telecommunications unless specifically authorized in this Parenting Plan.

☐ Applicable ☐ Not Applicable ☐ See Paragraph XI below

Supervised parenting time shall apply during the day-to-day schedule as follows:

Place: _____

Person/Organization supervising: _____

Responsibility for cost of supervised visitation:

☐ Custodial Parent ☐ Non-Custodial Parent ☐ Both equally

VII. COMMUNICATION PROVISIONS

A parent shall always have the current address, telephone number and cell phone number of the other parent. A parent shall promptly notify the other parent of a change of address, phone number or cell phone number. If a finding of family violence has been made, this notification may be made through a third party. A parent changing residence must give at least 30 days' notice of the change and provide the full address of the new residence.

If a parent is traveling with the child(ren) to a location that is outside of the Columbia Judicial Circuit and that trip will involve an overnight stay, he/she shall provide the other parent with reasonable information concerning the child(ren)'s whereabouts and how to contact the other parent in the event of an emergency. If travel is by air, he/she shall provide the other parent with the child(ren)'s flight information.

VIII. ACCESS RIGHTS TO RECORDS AND INFORMATION

Each parent shall have direct access to the child(ren)'s school, medical, dental and other records of every type, wherever they may be located, and shall have the right to discuss the child(ren) with doctors, teachers, administrators, coaches, youth leaders, and any and all other persons who are involved in any aspect of the child(ren)'s life/lives. Each parent shall have access to the child(ren)'s grades from school, as well as a schedule of the child(ren)'s curricular and extracurricular events, so that each parent shall be permitted and enabled to fully participate in all aspects of the life/lives of the child(ren) without first seeking the permission or input of the other parent. Each parent shall provide the other parent with all such schedules of curricular and extracurricular events or activities which are not reasonably available to the other parent. Each parent will inform the other of events and activities involving the child(ren) so that each parent will have an opportunity to attend if he/she so desires. Designation as a Non-Custodial Parent does not affect a parent's right to equal access to records and information.

IX. MODIFICATION OF PLAN OR DISAGREEMENTS

The parties may, by mutual agreement, vary the parenting time/visitation; however, such agreement shall not be a binding court order or be construed as modifying a previous order. Custody and visitation shall only be modified by court order. If the parents disagree about this parenting plan or wish to modify it, they must make a good faith effort to resolve the issue between themselves.

X. CONDUCT OF PARTIES

The parties shall always promote the welfare and best interest of the child(ren), and shall confer with each other on all important matters relating to the child(ren). The parties shall not do anything which will or may tend to estrange the child(ren) from the other party. Neither parent shall, directly or indirectly, encourage the child(ren) not to visit with the other parent, or otherwise interfere with the other party's rights of custody or visitation. The parties shall use their best efforts to amicably resolve disputes which may arise.

In the event that a child develops a serious illness or injury while visiting with one parent, the parent who has the child with them at the time of the injury or illness shall promptly inform the other parent of the child's condition. Emergency surgery necessary for the preservation of life or to prevent a further serious injury or condition may be performed without the other parent's consent; provided, however, that if time permits, the other parent shall be consulted and, in any event, he/she shall be informed as soon as possible. Non-emergency surgery shall be performed on a child only after the parties have conferred with each other.

Neither party shall consume illegal drugs or excessive amounts of alcohol when the child(ren) is/are in his or her custody. Neither party shall operate a motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol or any other substance which impairs the ability to drive when the child(ren) is/are in his or her custody.
